

August, 2023 has been a month of several important festivals and days that fall in this month including Onam, Raksha Bandhan, and Independence Day. Organizational level, it has been a month for filing Annual Account Report (Audit Report) , Income Tax Report & Annual Activity Report. It has been an important month because of Registration of organization at National CSR platform & at social welfare & Justice dept. govt. of India.

No new course could be started because of insufficient amount available at account. Great efforts have been made to garner donation for the Trainings & other planned activities. Projects Proposal have been sent to individuals, Private companies & Govt. establishments to support Job linked Skill based Training Programmes but no fruitful outcome has been reported so far. Donation from RICH & WEALTHY has been requested & expected to transform the lives of Helpless women, Youth Girls & Children. But received only small donations from salaried staffs from Govt. & Privates. Their small donations could make “ Dare to Complete the Hopes of 35 Hopeless & Helpless Women & Girls.”

Hariyali Teej occurs on the third day of Shukla Paksha in the month of Adhik Maas in Sawan month. This year, it has been celebrated by women & girls on August 19, 2023. Hariyali Teej is the festival which has been celebrated with great grandeur and enthusiasm.

EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN THROUGH LEGAL AWARENESS

has been organized on 29th August, 2023 for the trainee's beautician. In this awareness camp SHO Mahila Thana Samastipur Mrs. Putul Kumari ji explains in details the Legals rights for women as per the constitution & Laws.

She explained that the women Empowerment is the vital instrument to expand women stability to have resources and to make strategic life choices. Empowerment of women is essentially the process of upliftment of economic, social and political status of women, the traditionally under privileged once, in the society. It is the process of guarding them against all forms of violence. She further said that women population is around 50% of the total population of the World and now a day women are increasingly gaining control over their lives and are actively taking their own decisions with regard to their education, career, profession and lifestyle. She has stated that women have demanded equality with men in matters of education, employment, inheritance, marriage and politics. Further she explained that women empowerment implies the ability in women to take decisions with regard to their lives and work and giving with equal rights to them in all spheres like – personal, social, economic, political, legal and so on. They are playing multiple roles – at home as a mother, daughter, sister and wife and at working place as professional with remarkable simplicity and compatibility. It is not true that women, to a large extent, do not face, discrimination in the society today, unfortunately many of them face exploitation and harassment which can be diverse types – emotional, physical, mental and sexual and they are often subjected to rape, abuse and other forms of physical and intellectual violence. While explaining as above, She stated that the Parliament of India has passed various legislations to save women from various forms of injustice and discrimination. The following laws are enacted by the Parliament of India to empower women

1. Equal remuneration Act 1976
2. Dowry Prohibition Act 1961
3. Immoral traffic (Prevention Act) 1956
4. Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act 1971
5. Maternity benefit Act 1961
6. Prohibition of Child Marriage Act 2006
7. Sexual Harassment of women at work place (Prevention and Protection) Act 2013
